Legislative History Research Report Regarding:
CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE § 52.1
As Amended By Statutes of 1990, Chapter 392, § 1, AB 2683 – Floyd

I, Lisa Hampton, declare that this report includes:

- Historical documents surrounding the adoption of the above enactment. These documents were obtained by the staff of Legislative Research, Incorporated and are true and correct copies of the originals obtained from the designated official, public sources in California unless another source is indicated, with the following exceptions: In some cases, pages may have been reduced in size to fit an 8 ½" x 11" sized paper. Or, for readability purposes, pages may have been enlarged or cleansed of black marks or spots. Lastly, paging and relevant identification have been inserted.

Legislative Research, Incorporated was established in 1983 (formerly Legislative Research Institute), and is a firm which specializes in the historical research surrounding the adoption, amendment and/or repeal of California statutes, regulations and constitutional provisions pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 1859 which states in pertinent part: "In the construction of a statute the intention of the Legislature ... is to be pursued, if possible" Legislative Research, Incorporated has been cited by name as the source of records relied upon by the court in Redlands Community Hospital v. New England Mutual Life Insurance Co, 23 Cal. App.4th 899 at 906 (1994).

- A table of contents itemizing the documents. This table of contents cites the sources of the documents.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States and the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct and that I could and would so testify in a court of law if called to be a witness.

Executed June 4, 2010, in Sacramento, California.
